Committee Investigating the Trouble in West Virginia Coal Fields Fails to Learn Who Placed Gun There.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Special agents of the Chesapeake & Ohio railway company fitted up the famous "armored" car, which figured so prominently in the Paint Creek coal strike, according to testimony Friday before the senate special committee investigating the recent strike in the West Virginia coal fields.

E. L. Bock, a Chesapeake & Ohio trainmaster, told the committee that the railroad paid for the steel with which the car was lined, and that the special agents fitted it up to give themselves protection in clearing the road to take "transportation" men to the mines and to carry on other business. He was unable to tell at whose order a machine gun was placed in the armored car, or who owned the gun.

Attorneys for the coal operators promised to produce witnesses who would explain this point. Bock could not remember upon whose request he had sent the armored car to Charleston for the sheriff's posse on the evening of the "shooting up" of Mucklow, Captain L. G. Levy and Captain Fred W. Lester, in command of West Virginia militia companies sent to the Paint Creek district during martial law, testified accepting employment with the coal operators as watchmen after martial law was ended.

QUETZAL NATIONAL BIRD OF GUATEMALA

BY AUNT GERTIE.

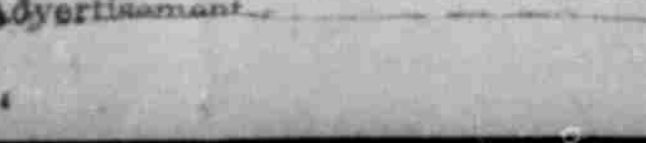

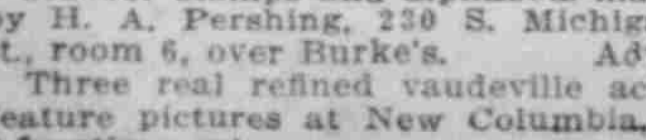

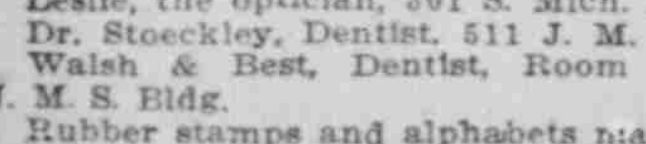

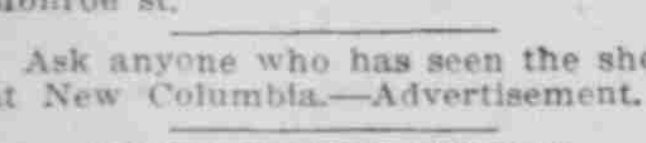

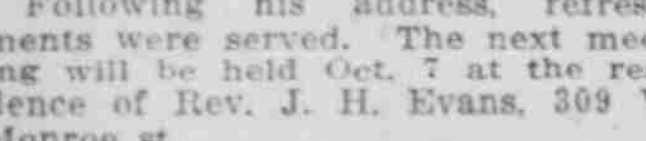

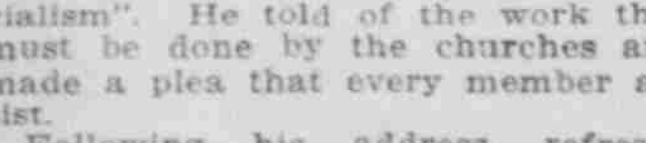

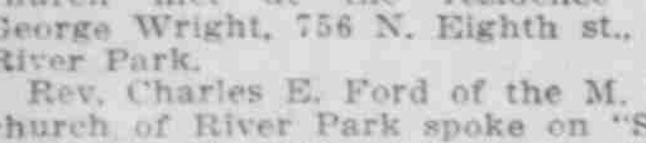

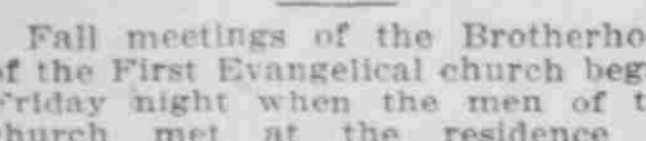

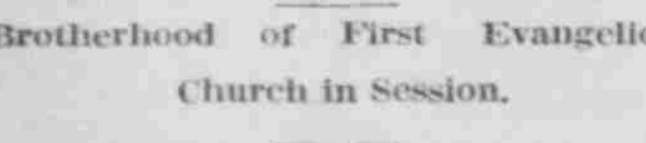

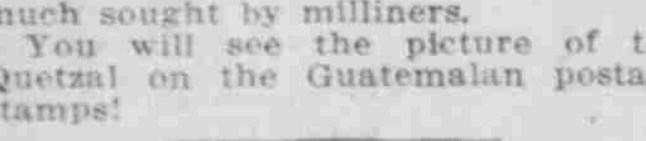

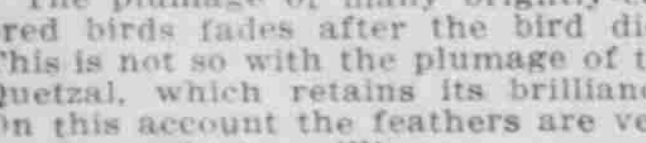

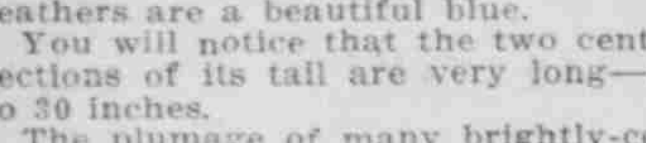

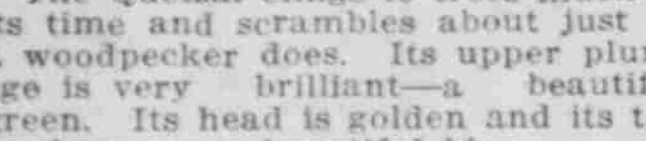

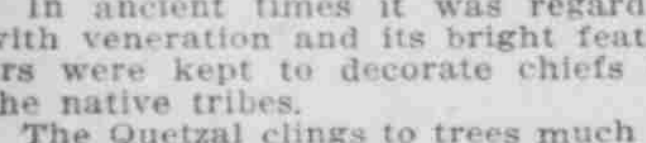

The bird house at the Zoo is so interesting that Artist "Barnie" and I spent another afternoon there this week.

While we were watching the birds of gorgeous plumage and listening to their chatter and queer calls, we noticed a long-tailed bird sitting, a little apart from the rest, on a high perch. No one seemed to know its name. So we inquired of the keeper, whom all the birds seemed to follow.

He feeds them, you see! The man told us that this bird's name was "QUETZAL".

A funny name, as well as a funny bird, we learned.

The home of the Quetzal is South America and it has been adopted as the national bird of Guatemala.

PERU RESIDENTS VISIT SOUTH BEND

Mayor and Other Officials Take in Sight Here and Thank City For Assistance During the Flood.

A delegation of 130 business and professional men from Peru visited South Bend Friday afternoon to express their gratitude for the efficient assistance given them by South Bend during the flood last spring.

The visitors had been invited to attend the carnival at Mishawaka Friday and slipped over to South Bend in the evening to pay their respects. They invited the residents of both cities to visit Peru during their festival from Sept. 29 to Oct. 4. An old-fashioned barbecue will be given in honor of the various cities that befriended them during the flood on Thursday, Oct. 2.

Among the delegation were the mayor, John J. Kreutzler; the city clerk, Tim Dunn; city treasurer, Frank Gysin; Hugh McCafferty, a retail and wholesale grocer; F. M. Stutsman, a retail grocer; W. R. Baker, manager of the Peru Chair company; several members of the city council, and several newspaper men. The party was accompanied by Brown's Commercial band of Peru. The band gave a concert on the streets of South Bend in the evening and one on the veranda of the Mishawaka hotel in the afternoon.

The party returned to Peru at 5:30 o'clock in the evening. They stopped at Warsaw on their return and gave a band concert there.

City Has Recovered.

Peru has entirely recovered from the effect of the flood, members of the party stated. The residents only remember it now to recall with gratitude the generous response made by their sister cities at the time of their need.

Tim Dunn, city clerk, who acted as chairman of the relief committee during the flood, highly extolled the assistance given by South Bend, during the flood, praising the personal work of Councilman Patrick Joyce. He particularly mentioned that the water supply shipped to the afflicted districts under the directions of the controller was of unusual benefit.

Special thanks were sent to O. A. Clark of Kable's restaurant for his assistance with food supplies last spring. The delegation made every effort to show their appreciation to every one who helped them.

The local fire department gave a display while the delegation was in the city. Before leaving the city the delegation was carried in automobiles to several of the larger factories, among them being Studebaker's, Oliver's and the Chilled Flow works.

ONE KILLED, THREE HURT AT BUCHANAN

Pere Marquette Hits Open Switch and Strikes String of Cars, Overturning a Big Casting.

Special to News-Times.
BUCHANAN, Mich., Sept. 6.—One man was killed and three men seriously injured here Friday afternoon when a Pere Marquette train ran through an open switch and crashed into five cars on a siding at the Peifer Tool Co. plant.

Porter A. Rice, engineer for the Tool company and the steel mill, died of his injuries in less than an hour. He was with George Otto and William Wendel was caught when a big casting, which a party of workers were unloading was thrown from the car. The other two men and the engineer on the train are seriously hurt.

The men were working between the steel and tool plants and failed to notice the approach of the train. A tank car in the rear of the car holding the casting, shut off their view and when the collision took place, they had no chance to flee for safety.

One passenger coach and several freight cars were carried by the engine. Several passengers were badly jolted by the impact, but were not hurt. The engineer was thrown from his car and is not expected to live.

When the collision occurred the five cars were shoved over 200 feet across the ground. One of the cars was tossed between the piers. The water tank and almost caused a collapse of that structure. The water pipes were broken and the water supply of the mill shut off.

Two of the injured men were taken to their homes. The engineer was removed to the home of the station agent and medical aid summoned.

SHERIFF PREVENTS THE ESCAPE OF PRISONERS

Men in Goshen Jail Use Knives For Saws and Saw Through One of the Bars.

ELKHART, Ind., Sept. 6.—Sheriff B. Frank Leader Friday afternoon prevented a wholesale jail delivery at the county bastille at Goshen by detecting two prisoners in the act of sawing through the bars in front of an open window.

Frank Walsh and Fred Remington, being held on the charge of stealing merchandise from the Lake Shore are the two men responsible for the unsuccessful job. Improvised saws had been made out of pocket knives and already one of the six bars had been sawed in two.

It was a barred opening on the south tier on which the men had expended their efforts and had they been successful, ten men would have had an opportunity to get away from the law's clutches.

AUTO DRIVER AND YOUNG GIRL KILLED

Harry Endicott Crashes Into Stands When a Tire Bursts While He is Making Practice Run at Jackson.

JACKSON, Mich., Sept. 6.—Harry Endicott, of Anderson, Ind., a brother of "Farmer Bill" Endicott, the noted automobile racer, and Mary Saranta, of Jackson, a ten-year-old spectator, were killed and three persons injured here Friday afternoon when Endicott's automobile, hurtling around the race track crashed through a fence after one of the front tires blew up.

The injured are George Benedict of Los Angeles, who was acting as Endicott's mechanic; Mrs. Mabel Walters and Frances Hall, 13 years old, both of Jackson. Benedict's condition is in doubt. Neither Mrs. Walters nor the Hall girl was seriously hurt.

Endicott was driving a 100 horsepower Cutting car preparatory to an exhibition race against Benedict here Saturday when the accident occurred. Benedict was at his side. The machine turned a sharp curve, as it swung onto the home stretch and with a report like a pistol shot the tire burst.

Before the crowd, which lined both sides of the track could realize what had happened the machine skidded about 200 feet, swerved and plunged directly at a flimsy fence to the side of the course.

Endicott was crushed to death against an iron railing, which the wrecked car snapped as though it were a pipe stem. Benedict was hurled from the car and one of the rear wheels passed over his body. He was taken to a local hospital and late tonight had only partly recovered.

The Saranta girl was instantly killed. The car, bounding from a road scraper, crushed her to death in a twinkling. Miss Hall sustained a fractured rib and numerous cuts. Mrs. Walters was knocked down but escaped with bruises.

An inquest will be held here Tuesday.

TO HOLD SCHOOL FOR THE FARMER

Lectures by Prominent Agricultural Men to Feature Sessions in Townships.

Farmers of St. Joseph and neighboring counties will be given a chance this fall to attend school.

These are the plans of the agriculture department of the state. John S. Bordner, county agent, will have charge in this county. The schools will be conducted under the direct auspices either of local farm bureaus, farm institutes or the township school boards.

It is planned to hold the schools four or five weeks in this county, with day and evening classes. All the farmers will be allowed to enter, and the courses of instruction will begin about the first of December, or as soon as the farmer has completed his fall work.

It is the purpose of the promoters in the movement to afford the farmer with a better and more efficient farm management, through a course of instruction dealing with scientific plans and the use of great help to him.

Lectures given by prominent agricultural men will be a big part of the course. Bordner will be assisted in the instruction by the agriculture agents from neighboring counties and he will assist them in similar courses either before or after the course here.

To assist in the instruction the state department has provided him with a camera, a stereopticon lantern, and a microscope. Pictures will be taken by the farm expert and used to a large extent in the course.

Madison township has already taken steps for a session, while Olive township will take up the matter soon. It is thought that three and possibly four weeks will be spent in each county, giving four or five days to a township. Madison township will have the first week. Two sessions will be held there, one in the east and the other in the west part of the township.

The schools will not be held, particularly in townships or even counties, as border lines will not prevent farmers in adjoining counties or townships from attending any of the schools.

An effort will be made to hold many of the meetings in outlying districts. Women as well as men will be privileged to attend, and the course will be outlined so as to interest them.

THREE TOSSED FROM BUGGY BY AN AUTO

Walter E. Metz, Wife and Baby Are Badly Bruised in Accident on Vista Av.

Walter E. Metz, 736 Harper court, sustained a deep scalp wound and his wife and baby received severe bruises and scratches Friday night when an unknown auto overturned a buggy in which they were riding on Vista av. near Sample st.

After the injured man had been carried to Dr. Charles E. Hanel's office on N. Main st., by the auto which threw him from his buggy, the driver mysteriously disappeared, leaving him with a friend on the porch. Dr. Hanel was in the office and the injured man was carried to Dr. H. M. Crow's residence, 209 N. Main st.

Medical attention was given his wounds, and he was later taken home. The accident took place at 9:30 in the evening as Metz and his family were returning from the carnival at Mishawaka. An approach of a south bound car caused them to turn to the side of the street, when the speeding auto tried to cut between the buggy and street car. The tender of the machine caught in the light buggy wheel and and threw the rig entirely over.

In ancient times it was regarded with veneration and its bright feathers were kept to decorate chiefs of the native tribes.

The Quetzal clings to trees much of its time and scrambles about just as a woodpecker does. Its upper plumage is very brilliant—a beautiful green. Its head is golden and its tail feathers are a beautiful blue.

You will notice that the two center sections of its tail are very long—28 to 30 inches.

The plumage of many brightly-colored birds fades after the bird dies. This is not so with the plumage of the Quetzal, which retains its brilliancy. On this account the feathers are very much sought by milliners.

You will see the picture of the Quetzal on the Guatemalan postage stamps!
